

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Monday, Jan. 31

2000

Space Shuttle Endeavour set to launch Monday

Shuttle managers confirmed Sunday that the launch of Space Shuttle Endeavour remains on schedule for Monday at 12:47 p.m. EST. After a final review of data gathered on a defective main engine fuel pump seal from orbiter Discovery, engineers determined that Endeavour's main engine fuel pumps are safe for flight. The target landing date for Endeavour is Feb. 11.

Leadership Forum
kicks off Black History Month 1:30-
3 p.m. Tuesday,
Morris Auditorium

For tickets to
Sen. Shelby's
Washington
Update Feb. 7,
call 544-0042

ODIN Help Desk to provide around-the-clock service

Beginning Tuesday, the ODIN Help Desk will provide support 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Call 544-HELP and press the number "7." Calls will be routed directly to the local ODIN Customer Support Center.

Flight Projects Directorate retiree reception Tuesday

A reception honoring Flight Projects Directorate employees who retired in 1999 will be held from 2-4 p.m. on Tuesday in the Bldg. 4610 cafeteria. Honorees include: William Humphries, Paul Hillard, Robert Jernigan, Harvey Shelton, Richard Hargrove, Charlie Jones, John Reaves, Robert Little, Lori Self, Kenneth Smith and Bernice Smith.

VPP Rally 8:30-
10:30 a.m., Thurs.,
Morris Auditorium.
Everyone invited